HEADLINE: Two military veteran nonprofit organizations team up to thwart veteran suicide by way of music festival.

WHAT: Waxahachie AutoPlex Presents Texas Veterans United Music Festival; An indoor, all day, music festival that features some of the best outlaw music that our nation has to offer. Nine bands over eleven hours for one ticket price, with all ticket proceeds going directly to these organization's Rapid Response Funds. Tickets are $20 in advance, $25 at the door. $60 for limited VIP.

Bands include Jackson Taylor, Mickey Lamantia, and Creed Fisher. Northern Kentucky based One Degree From Mande and Cincinnati, Ohio based Dallas Moore, Tom McElvain, Deanna Wheeler, Travis and Cindy Jo. Also, an all acoustic set from Johnny Paycheck Jr., son of the legendary country music tycoon.

WHO: Operation Valor – Austin, Texas based, veteran-founded, veteran-run, 100% all-volunteer nonprofit foundation created to support fully vetted veteran charities. It is starting its very own chapter of a "Rapid Response Fund," a dedicated fund to be used exclusively for assisting veterans that are suicidal or in peril.

Hanoi's Lost Child Foundation - Northern Kentucky based military veteran nonprofit organization that provides relief to military members and veterans with funds raised predominately by entertainment events. The first organization to have a "Rapid Response Fund," that saved 21 veteran lives by preventing suicide in the last 24 months.

Waxahachie AutoPlex: Premium sponsor of the festival, a six-brand major auto dealership based in Waxahachie, Texas.

WHEN: Saturday, April 25 2020. 1 p.m. to midnight

WHERE: The Twisted Spur Saloon, 122 West 3rd St, Corsicana, TX 75110

WHY: To raise funds for Operation Valor and Hanoi's Lost Child Foundation's Rapid Response Funds to thwart military veteran suicide and to help those veterans in peril.
